

Mary Peloquin-Dodd • Associate Vice Chancellor for Finance and University Treasurer (AVC) at North Carolina State University

In her position as AVC, she oversees all University Finance departments including the University Controller's Office (which also oversees the University's debt portfolio, as well as compliance and financial training), Office of Contracts and Grants, Foundations Accounting and Investments (which oversees the University's endowment and LLCs); University Cashiers Office; and Procurement & Business Services. She previously provided leadership to the University Real Estate Office.

Mary is an officer of the University's Endowment Fund, the NC State Investment Fund, Inc. and 15 of the university's affiliated entities. She has also served twice as the interim Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration, in October 2015 – January 2016 and October 2018 – September 2019, overseeing the following units: Budget and Resource Management, Campus Enterprises, Environmental Health and Public Safety, Facilities, Finance, Human Resources and University Real Estate and Development.

Before joining NC State, Mary was a Managing Director at Standard & Poor's in New York, and Senior Analytical Leader of the US Higher Education and Not-for-Profit Corporate Ratings Group. Mary spent nearly 25 years at S&P and became a widely known analyst in the field of higher education finance. She holds both an undergraduate and graduate degree from UNC-Chapel Hill.
