Kevin Doar – Director, Office of Merchant Services, University of Washington

Kevin Doar serves as the Director of Merchant Services at the University of Washington. Prior to serving as Director, Kevin spent eight years in IT Audit, Computer Forensics, and IT Security. If you do not find Kevin wading PCI waters at UW, he is most likely on a boat whale watching, attending a local theatre, hiking, or dragging his wife and skeptical dog on some other random adventure. Kevin holds the CISA, CIA, and ISA certifications, and completed his MA and MS at Florida State University.
